ABOUT MICHIGAN OPERA THEATRE & THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

For over thirty years the Michigan Opera Theater has stood for excellence in opera entertainment and education. Regarded as one of the finest cultural resources serving the State of Michigan, Michigan Opera Theatre has also achieved national stature as one of the country's ten largest opera companies. Under the guidance of general director, David DiChiera, Michigan Opera Theatre makes its home at the beautifully renovated Detroit Opera House. The award-winning Community Programs Department has brought its varied musical programs to every age group in Michigan and other states for over 25 years. Artists visit clubs, offices, schools, and community stages, performing shows that range from lively children's operas, to musical revues, to full length opera produced with the local community. Founded by Karen V. DiChiera, the Department of Community Programs serves the entire state with quality entertainment and education.
